SINKHOLE – Lancaster County, 11/8/16 – A 20 foot sinkhole occurred at Pine Street and Park Avenue in Ephrata Borough. The sinkhole caused a water main and gas line break.

The sinkhole has continued to expand forcing two nearby apartment buildings to be evacuated. Nineteen residents were initially displaced and were being assisted by the American Red Cross. Six residents from the apartments located on the 200 block of the W. Pine Street building have been allowed to return. The Park Avenue apartment must have its foundation inspected to determine if it is safe for residents to return home. The inspection will not be performed until after the utilities are stabilized sometime next week. The sinkhole is approximately 100' x 60' with a cavern at least 60' deep. A Declaration of Disaster has been issued by the borough effective 11/8/16. Construction work on the site is still in progress. Geophysical surveying results are complete and have been presented to the borough. The Borough is requested Right of Entry permissions to the private landowner to mitigate the existing void. Residents should be able to return to their homes next week if the mitigation work is completed.

ADVERSE WEATHER – Statewide, 10/21/16 – Heavy rain over a short time resulted in flash flooding in numerous north central counties. The Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) provided emergency permits and water test kits in affected municipalities. Lycoming County reached out to all of their municipalities to collect Disaster Declarations, DAP-19 forms and Equipment Usage Lists. Preliminary estimates from Centre, Lycoming and Sullivan counties indicate damage in the range between $10 and $14 million. PEMA supported a Multi-Agency Recovery Center in Centre County on November 3, 2016. Support included the following agencies: PA Department of Health, IRS, PEMA Hazard Mitigation, PA Department of Insurance, and DEP. As of 11/1/16, Sunoco Logistics continued work on the pipeline by beginning hydro testing on an area south of the damaged section. Water for the hydro testing is being brought in and removed by truck and is recycled in coordination with DEP regulations. Current water monitoring results confirmed safe drinking water supplies. Air quality tests detect no hazardous levels. As of 11/2/16, all county EOCs have stood down. The Governor of Pennsylvania has requested a Major Disaster Declaration for Public Assistance (Cat A-G) for four counties and Hazard Mitigation statewide due to severe storms and flooding that occurred. On November 21, the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) approved disaster assistance for Centre and Lycoming counties, as well as the contiguous counties of Blair, Bradford, Clearfield, Clinton, Columbia, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Montour, Northumberland, Potter, Sullivan, Tioga, and Union.

24-hour Projected Weather Statewide:

National Weather Service, 0511 hours, 11/26/16

A west wind will bring colder air into the state today. A little light rain or even a few snowflakes will move out of the northeastern part of the state early this morning. Lake effect snow showers will start across the northern and western mountains and continue into early Sunday. Most locations across the mountains will see only light amounts, but one to three inches will be possible across the northwest. Locations right along the Lake Erie shoreline will be too warm for snow and it should fall as rain.

Clouds will cover most of the state this morning, but large breaks will develop over the southeastern half of the state throughout the day. Highs today will only be in the mid-30s in the highest elevations and lower 50s in the lower Delaware Valley. A gusty west wind will make it feel colder.

Skies tonight and Sunday will continue to be mostly cloudy in the northwest and partly cloudy to clear in the southeast. Lows will range from the upper 20s across the mountains to the mid-30s in Erie and Philadelphia.

Highs on Sunday will be a few degrees cooler than today in most of the state. However, the west may be a few degrees milder than today. High temperatures will range from the mid-30s north to around 50 degrees southeast.
