Governor's Office

PROCLAMATION

TERMINATING THE DISASTER EMERGENCY

April 12, 2018

WHEREAS, on March 6, 2018, I amended my January 10, 2018, proclamation of disaster emergency related to the opioid crisis affecting the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to proclaim the existence of an additional disaster emergency in the Commonwealth due to a severe winter weather event that began to impact the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on March 2, 2018; and

WHEREAS, the severe winter weather event caused dangerous conditions including snow and ice accumulation and wide-spread power outages; and

WHEREAS, this severe winter weather event affected multiple political subdivisions in the Commonwealth resulting in impacts that were both immediate and long term, and required a comprehensive partnership between the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions for effective recovery; and

WHEREAS, immediate steps were taken to stabilize the affected areas, recovery operations commenced, and ongoing monitoring of conditions made at my direction have disclosed that the adverse impacts of this event have been mitigated such that emergency conditions no longer exist.

THEREFORE, pursuant to the provisions of section 7301(c) of the Emergency Management Services Code, 35 Pa. C.S. §7101 et seq., I do hereby proclaim the termination of the March 6, 2018, disaster emergency in the Commonwealth related to the severe winter weather event. The proclamation of disaster emergency, and subsequent amendment issued by me on April 4, 2018, related to the opioid crisis affecting the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania remains in full force and effect.

GIVEN under my hand and the Seal of the Governor, at the City of Harrisburg, on this twelfth day of April two thousand and eighteen, the year of the commonwealth the two hundred forty-second.
